HAWAII'S CONDITION.

Latest News Received From the Much-Talked-of Islands.

A SERIES OF POLITICAL EVENTS.

The Islands Now Passing Through a Crisis Never Before Experienced—The Queen Not Restored to Her Throne and Not Likely to Be Without Serious Results. Arrival of the Oceanic.

HONOLULU, Dec. 13.—Since the arrival of the steamer Warrimoo on the 24th ult. political events have followed each other with startling rapidity. Dispatches forwarded the Associated Press by sailing vessels on Nov. 19 and 23 have not fully anticipated the serious condition Hawaii is now passing through in the most determined and heroic way.

When the Warrimoo arrived with Cleveland's ultimatum the royalists were jubilant, and the annexationists at once began to carry out previous plans for forcible resistance in case the steamer China, which arrived three days later, brought instructions to Minister Willis for the restoration of the monarchy, with the aid of the United States troops from the warships Adams and Philadelphia. Within 24 hours after the news brought by the Warrimoo was received 1,600 determined annexationists had assembled on short notice at the drill shed of the barracks, behind the executive building. The meeting was short but wildly enthusiastic. "The spirit of 1776" prevailed and those who heard the ringing cheers which welcomed the speeches of President F. M. Hatch of the Annex club and presentation of the following resolution, know that monarchy, even though restored by the superior forces of the United States, would be short lived.

Since this massmeeting the spirit of enthusiasm which at first prevailed among the royalists, has been in a state of fluctuation, and some of their clearest-headed leaders admit that the success of the restoration in the present or future depends on the armed protection of the monarchy by the United States.

The following are the resolutions adopted by the massmeeting on Saturday evening, Nov. 25:

RESOLVED, That we have read with surprise and regret the recommendation of the secretary of state of the United States to the president to restore the monarchy lately existing in Hawaii.

RESOLVED, That we condemn the assumption of the secretary that the right of the provisional government to exist was terminated by his refusal to resubmit to the senate the treaty of union pending between the two countries, and also his assumption that the provisional government had at that very time submitted the question of its continued existence to the arbitration of the president or of any other power.

RESOLVED, That we support to the best of our ability the provisional government in resisting any attack upon it which may be contrary to the usage of nations.

The adoption of the resolutions was preceded by speeches of many leading citizens, chief of which was that of F. M. Hatch, a leading lawyer, and president of the Annexation club.

After the undecided character of the news received by the steamer China, the opinion prevailed, until the arrival of the Australia, that instructions would be received by the latter vessel for immediate restoration. Pending the Australia's coming several important cabinet and council meetings were held, and it was determined to meet the proposed restoration of the monarchy by the combined forces of the government, the American league, the Annexation club and citizens' reserve guard, whose joint strength is about 2,000 men on this island and within Honolulu.

Orders were at once given to those governments having, or to have hereafter, warships in Honolulu harbor that no nation would be allowed to land troops without a written consent of the provisional government. This notice was served upon the foreign diplomatic corps in writing on the 29th of November, and is intended to be final from its date pending and after the arrival of the Australia. The notice applied to the Japanese cruiser Naniwa, and the Japanese Consul General Fujii has privately announced that Japan would not interfere should war break out between the provisional government and other nations. The Naniwa will be neutral for the protection of the lives and property of the Japanese residents. Active preparations, both for defense and aggression if necessary, were begun the day after the arrival of the steamer China.

Two hundred and fifty men were put to work fortifying the executive building. The verandas were fortified with three tiers of sandbags. The roof will be similarly treated. Companies of sharpshooters, all trained men, will occupy the four corner towers from basement to roof. The preparations thus far made will allow the government to handle with great resistance a force of from 750 to 800 troops in the executive buildings, and ammunition and stores have been provided to withstand a continuous attack for one month or more should hostilities break out.

The water supply can not be cut off, as the executive building is supplied by an artesian well on the grounds. The government claims that with the support of the Annexation club and citizens' reserve, backed by the present formidable battery of Gatlings, Maxims and Austrian field pieces now on hand, an aggressive movement could be made if necessary that would clear Honolulu of the aggregate forces of all the men-of-war vessels at present in port should a landing be made.

In case a collision comes further aid will at once rally around the provisional government from the other islands. In case it is the intention to carry out the instructions for the restoration of the monarchy, Minister Willis has promised to give the provisional government 30 hours notice before acting.

"In case such notice comes," said a prominent man to the Associated Press correspondent, "should President Cleveland attempt to carry out his policy against the Americans in Hawaii, 500 men will be at once put to work and before the time expires the executive building will be surrounded on all four sides with rifle pits 150 feet from the building, which will defy attack and be absolutely safe from the guns of the ships."

Careful inquiry has put the Associated Press in possession of the fact that in case of defeat, the revenues of the government have already been secreted at other headquarters, defying Cleveland and the restored monarchy until the resident Americans are swept by superior force from their homes in Hawaii. The first action by the authorities here after the arrival of the text of Blount's report, was to remove Mr. Wunderberg from the clerkship he holds in the supreme court.

It has been learned upon the best authority, coming directly from royalist sources, that British Minister Resident Wodehouse has lately stated to different persons in Honolulu that there was an understanding between President Cleveland and the English government that the monarchy should be restored.

In private political circles here on the annexationist side the opinion has been freely expressed that the presence of the British schooner Champion here at the present time was owing to the fear of the English foreign office that President Cleveland would not be able to carry out his policy. This theory reached the executive, and an advisory council's special session was held in which Mr. Brown introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously recommended by the council to the executive:

RESOLVED, That the executive council inquire of the American minister whether his instructions were covered by and in harmony with the letter of Secretary Gresham to President Cleveland. If so, whether he was instructed to use force.

RESOLVED, That should the answer be in the affirmative, these councils recommend that Mr. Willis be immediately given his passport and the ex-queen be made a prisoner of state.

The fear of the councils seems to be that the British will offer protection to the ex-queen in case Cleveland fails to restore her. This is the chief reason the notice stated has been given foreign officials not to land troops without permission of the provisional government.

The provisional government will send important dispatches to Minister Thurston either by the steamer Arawa or by the Oceanic.

First—The present status of Hawaiian affairs including the determined policy of the provisional government as stated.

Second—The determination of the government to hold the situation against any attempts to overthrow it, either by revolt or foreign interference.

Third—That the only proposition submitted by the provisional government to the United States was a proposition for annexation.

Fourth—That throughout President Dole has refused in all diplomatic matters to commit the provisional government to a policy binding upon Hawaii in case of adverse action by the United States congress.

The fact is to be emphasized that no question of arbitration has been submitted by the provisional government as assumed by Secretary Gresham. Mr. Thurston will be instructed that the position taken by him is the correct one, and the one upon which the government here will insist with force if necessary.

It is learned that as Blount interviewed but two of the original committee of safety, the government will also forward to Thurston for use, affidavits from the remaining 11 members as to facts happening from the date of promulgation of the new constitution to the time of the raising of the stars and stripes by ex-Minister Stevens.

In view of the attitude assumed by President Cleveland, the American citizens presented a protest to Minister Willis which has been numerous signed, in which they set forth that as citizens of the United States, they have done nothing whereby they forfeit or waive their full legal and constitutional rights as such citizens.

The document contains six type-written pages of recitation, before the signatures, and closes with the following words: "And the undersigned hereby solemnly and respectfully protest to your excellency and to Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, and to Walter Gresham, secretary of state, to Hilary A. Herbert, secretary of the navy, and to Rear Admiral John Irwin, commanding the United States naval forces, now in Hawaiian waters, and to all concerned that any such acts of war or hostility if taken, attempted, or announced in time of the profound peace now existing between the United States and the Hawaiian Islands, or without any full, formal, timely announcement thereof, will and would, because for all concerned in authority to the responsible for all consequences that may ensue therefrom, not only before the Almighty God, but all sanctioned rules and observances of civilized nations in their dealings with each other, and will and would be in violation of the rights of the undersigned, secured and belonging to them as citizens of the United States of America."

Immediately upon the arrival of the Australia, the councils held a special session to hear official dispatches from Thurston. These strongly advised the provisional government to hold the fort.

The idea is growing here that Minister Willis will refuse to act, and will probably resign before he will carry out Cleveland's restoration policy. He refuses to be interviewed, and at the present writing it is not known from any hint or word he has dropped, either to the provisional government or elsewhere, what course he will pursue after the arrival of the Alameda, due here Dec. 21, with Washington dispatches in answer to his application by that vessel for final instructions.

OCEANIC ARRIVES.

Advices From Honolulu Up to December 5.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—The steamship Oceanic has just reached this port from Honolulu, Dec. 5. The following letter is furnished the United Press under that date:

The steamer Arawa was held over until noon yesterday to allow Hon. McKenzie Bowell, minister of trade and commerce of Ottawa, Canada, to address the Honolulu chamber of commerce. Mr. Bowell was accompanied by Mr. Theo H. Davies. Application was first made to President Dole to use his influence to call the chamber of commerce together to listen to Mr. Bowell's commercial propositions, which are known to have had a semi-political significance.

Reporters were excluded from the meeting and it is impossible to get off a report of the meeting by the Arawa, though Mr. Bowell carries with him a verbatim report by his secretary which will probably be published upon his arrival. Mr. Bowell's speech consisted mainly of an appeal for aid from the Hawaiian government to encourage the Canadian-Australia steamship line. He told of the market in Canada for Hawaiian products and spoke of the necessity of cable communication between Hawaii and Canada and Australia. He said a conference would be held next year in Canada on the subject and invited Hawaii to send a representative.

The members of the cabinet were seen shortly after the meeting yesterday morning, and even their guarded expressions of opinion concerning the intent and purpose of Mr. Bowell's proposition showed that the real scheme behind his speech, as reported, was preliminary to a proposal for a new treaty to be entered into on the part of England, through Canada, with Hawaii.

In answer to your correspondent one of the cabinet said: "Of course no proposition has yet been made; we have nothing before us, but it is not likely that we will enter into relations unless forced to do so by the attitude of the United States. Yes, I am inclined to believe that the hand and influence of England is behind this proposal, and that a proposal for a new treaty will be made before the time for the expiration of the reciprocity treaty with the United States. I certainly believe England is trying to gain a foothold here."

A rumor of disaffection in the government here, which has been going around for some time, proves upon inquiry to be without foundation. The policy of resistance to either internal or external force has received the unanimous consent of the government. This is stated upon the best authority.

Although two applications have been made by the Associated Press for an interview with the ex-queen since the arrival of the steamer Australia both have been denied. In each case he was referred to Hon. Paul Neumann, who seems now to be the sole adviser and director of the ex-queen's policy and actions.

Yesterday evening the town was filled with rumors that the ex-queen was to be restored this morning at 10 o'clock. Later it was learned that the rumors had arisen among native boat boys, and was caused by official visits in the morning by United States Minister Willis to the British cruiser Champion and Rear Admiral Irwin to the Japanese cruiser Naumina.

Captain Whiting, who will be married this evening, will leave with his bride by the steamer Australia next Saturday for the United States.

AYESHA IS DEAD.

The Queen Told of by Rider Haggard in "She" Not Immortal.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A dispatch from Cape Town says Chieftainess Majadwie, the original of Ayesha of Rider Haggard's "She," is dead, and leaves no female successor, but her legal heir is a male, Kahoon, who is a Christian, living with a missionary. For generations the superstitions of this tribe have been used by successive groups of Indians, who ruled the people by persuading them that the queen was possessed of immortality.

Aultman's Failure.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Representative Harter of Ohio, one of the principal stockholders in the Aultman-Taylor company of Mansfield, O., gave out the following statement in connection with the failure of C. Aultman & Company of Canton, O.:

"While their corporate names resemble each other, the Aultman firm in Mansfield, O., have always been separate and competing concerns and never had any connection with the Canton house of C. Aultman & Company, and the condition of that firm doesn't affect the Mansfield house in any way."

Advising a Strike.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 13.—Patrick McBride, secretary of the United Mine Workers of America, and John Nugent, president of the Hocking valley miners' union, are in the city for the purpose of inducing the miners of Pittsburgh district to strike for the 65 cent rate, adopted at last Friday's convention, in order that the rates in Ohio, Indiana and Illinois may be maintained. The failure of the Pittsburgh operators to agree, it is feared, will result in a further reduction in prices to 53 cents per ton, and the miners' officials are anxious to prevent this.

Bond For a Thousand Missing.

TOLEDO, Dec. 13.—A city bond of $1,000 has mysteriously disappeared. Seventy-five bonds of that denomination were printed and numbered consecutively. They were signed by the city auditor and mayor. They were then sent to the Second National bank, where it was discovered that No. 73 was missing.

SLUGGED AND ROBBED.

Daring Deed Done in the Chicago Post-office by One Man.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Cashier A. J. Robinson of the wholesale stamp department of the Chicago postoffice was slugged at 7:30 o'clock last night and a large sum of money taken. How much is not known, but it is estimated as reaching into the thousands. Mr. Robinson was alone in his office when a rap, such as is given only by employes of the postoffice department when they desire to see the cashier, was given upon his door. Mr. Robinson at once opened the door and was confronted by a stranger, who asked if his cash balanced.

Mr. Robinson replied that it did not although he had gone over it several times.

"I sent my boy here today to get some stamps," continued the stranger, "and he was given more stamps than he should have received. I have brought them back, and here they are. This will probably cause the cash to come out all right."

Mr. Robinson extended his hand for the stamps and at once received a terrific blow upon the head with a club or sandbag and was knocked senseless. He was still unconscious when found, nearly three hours later, and by the time he was able to tell his story the thief had been gone nearly four hours. He left absolutely no clew behind him, as nobody saw him leave the building. He made his escape through a window, dropping three packages of money of an aggregate value of $680 in his hasty exit. The amount of money taken is unknown, as it will take some time to straighten out Robinson's cash. The amount is generally put, however, at $5,000 or over.

Reduction in Wages.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Dec. 13.—The employes of the Wyoming division of the Lehigh Valley railroad have been notified of a reduction in wages. In future yard engineers will be paid at the rate of $3 per day, a reduction of from 25 to 50 cents per day. Firemen will receive $1.90 per day for the first six months, $2 for the second six months and $2.10 after one year.

Excitement Still Continues.

PALERMO, Dec. 13.—The excitement at Partinico continues. The municipal guards have fled and the populace has forced the provision dealers to lower their prices and has refused to pay octroi duties for three days past. Bands of peasants are scouring the country to prevent the laborers from going to work.

Driven to It by the Grip.

ROCHESTER, Dec. 13.—Albert H. Bruman, receiving cashier of the Rochester Savings bank, suicided by shooting himself at his home at 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He had been ill for three weeks suffering from a severe attack of grip, and it is supposed that despondency prompted his act.

Premature Explosion of Dynamite.

HOUGHTON, Mich., Dec. 13.—A premature explosion of dynamite in the bottom of the Hecla mine last evening killed John H. George and injured John Bell so badly that he is in a critical condition, and if he lives will be blind.

Co-Operative Factories.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 13.—The American flint glass workers' union is considering the advisability of starting co-operative factories in opposition to the United States Glass company, which recently locked out its employes.

TREATY WITH CHINA.

Our Present One Will Have to Be Changed.

EFFECTS OF THE GEARY LAW.

The State Department at Washington Trying to Straighten Out Our Relations With China—An Extension of Americans Made One of the Objects of Secretary Gresham—Chinese Officials Silent.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—It is probable that before long the state department will enter upon negotiations looking to the straightening out of our relations with China. The enactment of the Geary law will be looked upon as an infraction of our present treaty with China, and so in effect putting an end to it. That treaty grants to the United States privileges which are highly valued, and which it will be sought to perpetuate to use. But it will have to be done by a new treaty. There is good authority for saying that Secretary Gresham aspires to make the extensions of trade relations and privileges with China a central feature of his administration of the state department. It would supersede the pan-American policy of his predecessor in the state department, and would be contrasted with it. It is known that Secretary Gresham has little faith in the future of our trade relations with the Spanish-American republics as an adequate field for the extensions of our commerce. He is said to regard that field as not well worth the expense and labor of cultivating it. It is significant in this relation that the secretary of state has made no recommendation for an appropriation to maintain the bureau of American republics, which was established as a result of the pan-American congress, and has been maintained at the joint expense of the nations interested since.

It is definitely known that Mr. Yung Yu, the recently arrived envoy of China, contemplated the termination of the present treaty by the passage of the Geary act when he came to Washington, and that one of the purposes of his mission is the negotiation of a new treaty. The adjustment of the immigration question by the amendment and extension of the Geary act is said to be satisfactory to the Chinese government. They are not anxious to extend the privilege of immigration for their people, in fact, are believed to be rather opposed to it. But they are solicitous for the protection and the privilege of their citizens. China is believed to be contemplating a large extension of the privileges of her market to foreigners and to be anxious to avail herself of the advantages of western ingenuity and the products of our civilization.

At the same time she fears aggressions from European nations and is not willing to risk their policy of self-aggrandizement by entering into closer relations. Her statesmen are believed, however, to regard a closer trade relation with the United States with favor, both on account of the greater proximity of the two countries and the less aggressive character of our foreign policy. It is said by those in a position to know that definite results may come of the negotiations within a comparatively short time. Besides trade relations the negotiations include, first, the settlement of the vexed question of the Chinese immigration; second, the treatment to be accorded to Chinese citizens already in this country, or who may hereafter legally come here; third, the protection and privileges to be extended by Chinese to American citizens residing in China. Aside from these main questions, the negotiations are said to have been of so broad a character as to take in all of the causes of friction, which from time to time have developed between this country and China.

At the Chinese legation there was much reticence in discussing the subject. It was intimated that the minister was hopeful of material changes at an early day in the present treaty, yet he was not disposed to prematurely anticipate them.

MELLO SUCCEEDS.

In Converting Admiral De Gama to His Cause.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The Brazilian revolution has assumed a new and much more serious aspect, by the declaration of Admiral De Gama in favor of the revolution and a restoration of the empire. Minister Mendonca of Brazil says: "I know De Gama personally and most intimately, and I realize that he gives the rebels a power and prestige they have never before had."

"Although he is a rear admiral of the same rank as Mello, yet De Gama is recognized as the most popular and able man in the navy. The entire navy is likely to follow De Gama, for he has a controlling influence over most of the officers of the navy, and those who would not follow him in this respect would do so in fear of him."

"Admiral De Gama has two protected cruisers and two lesser warships inside the harbor of Rio. Admiral Mello has the ironclads Aquidaban and Republica outside the harbor. There are a number of small ships which are likely to follow De Gama's orders. In fact, the entire navy is likely to be concentrated against the internal resources and the army of Brazil."

Senhor Mendonca said that the De Gama declaration in favor of restoring the empire would probably stimulate the exiled relics of the old empire to contribute large sums toward the restoration.

WILSON BILL AND THE MARKET.
 "We have had since the Wilson bill was made public another interesting illustration of how the stock market is wont to discount the future," says the Financial Chronicle, of New York. "No subject has been more talked about on Wall street during the last few weeks than tariff revision. The claim was that as soon as a bill having that purpose in view was formulated and legislation threatening to disturb existing rates began to be agitated, there would be a general industrial upheaval in which the stock market would be sure to suffer severely. Just the reverse has happened, so far at least as affecting the surface of stock exchange affairs. The bill referred to had no sooner appeared than values of all good railroad properties began to strengthen and the market has had a better tone ever since. The explanation of this change is that Wall street interprets the prospective tariff legislation as promising to be much less radical than rumor had forecast it; hence the publication relieved the market of the pressure these exaggerated rumors had exerted and gave opportunity to the improving industrial conditions to have more influence on stock value."

BRIGHTENING SKIES.
 The New York Herald's advices from all sections of the country indicate that business is improving. Foundries are resuming, while shut-downs are no longer recorded. There is an absence of fuss and feathers in it all. It is better that it is so, for it indicates that the improvement is real and progressive, observes the Richmond State. It is true that the unemployed class is large but we hear more of it now because cold weather is at hand.
 It is significant, however, that the record of mills closing is now no longer seen in the papers, while on each day the resumption of some factory is chronicled. The country is emerging surely from its long period of depression.

Mr. David A. Wells, authority on these subjects, says: "The country is recovering from a bad scare, and I think it will as rapidly as ever under similar circumstances resume its wonted prosperity. As to the tariff, when Peel brought in his first reform bill just the same howl went up from the British interests, which thought they were going to be ruined, as you can now hear in this country. But two years later, when his second bill came in, the very men who had opposed him most bitterly rallied to his support, and that will be the case in this country."

Three of 'Em.
 Sam Osborne, alias Sam Williams, John Lampkin and Howard Blythe were taken to Cincinnati this morning by Chief of Police Fitzgerald, assisted by Detective Ralph Crawford of the Queen City. They are wanted for burglarizing Fanger's shoe store.
 Blythe was arrested last night by Captain Fitzgerald and Deputy Marshal Downey, and went down under the impression that he was wanted only as a witness against the others, but he, and Osborne and Lampkin have all been indicted for the job by the Cincinnati grand jury. He is a son of William Blythe, of the West End.

Christmas Tree at Sardis.
 The good sisters of the M. E. Church, South, at Sardis, are arranging for a Christmas tree, Saturday night before Christmas—December 23d. Contributions will be thankfully received. An elegant string band with organ accompaniment will furnish music. Let no one be slighted. Just opposite Arcade Hall, Gus Grigsby has established Santa Claus' Court of Honor, which will be illuminated, and all can obtain a suitable present for the gift-bearing tree. Come with your sweetheart and have one evening of unalloyed pleasure.

LAYTHAM CHAPEL.

The Old School Baptists of this locality have enjoyed a feast of reason and a feast of the palate since the arrival of Elder P. G. Lester, of Virginia. "The voice of rejoicing and salvation has been in the tabernacle of the righteous."

Saturday morning Elder Lester preached from II Timothy, eleventh chapter, seventh verse: "Consider what I say, and the Lord give thee understanding in all things." The foundation of his remarks the seven verses following. He claims to be called to preach the gospel. You must also be called to hear. It requires gifts to hear and to speak. Introductory song, "Loving kindness."

"A friend there is, your voices join
 Ye saints to praise His name."
 The Elder is not only a deeply interesting speaker, but an experienced chorister. In connection with Elder Silas H. Durand, of Pennsylvania, he has compiled a hymn and tune book for use in the Old School Baptist churches. The Saviour always spoke in parables. The Apostles did not always understand Him. "Great is the mystery of Godliness." We are inclined to affirm after hearing one of the Old School Baptists preach, for they surely speak the wisdom of God in a mystery. The great agnostic Ingersoll says, "Did you ever know a prayer to be answered?" Lester replies, "He always answers prayer, but in His own way, not in ours." "With heaven and earth at His command He waits to answer prayer."

We enjoy our religion but can not explain it. It can't be reasoned or laughed away. It's our experience. He spoke one hour and fifteen minutes and no one had "that tired feeling" spoken of in the newspapers.

Elder Lester's text Sunday morning and afternoon was found in Isaiah, lxi: 12-13, "The spirit of the Lord is upon me because the Lord has anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek." The wonderful character of the lowly Nazarene, no D. D. or LL. D., but simply what "I am I am," the speaker sought to depict his life, his social relations, his disposition, his deeds and doctrines. He produced conviction without controversy, and gave his hearers in his closing sermons "beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the Lord that they might be glorified." The meeting from beginning to end was of the most inspiring character. The hymns were sung with fervor, and the condensed Bible talk made a deep impression.

Among the visitors at the chapel we met Mrs. W. C. Pelham and pretty daughters, of Maysville, Roger Owens and Paul Best, of Germantown, Mrs. Lizzie Jefferson, Miss Alberta Caldwell, Mrs. Dr. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Shanklin, Mrs. Albert Wilson and family, Captains Jackson and Brown, D. P. Dye, Charles Parry and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pogue, of Mayslick.

Mr. James Pogue and his bonnie New York bride attracted much attention. She is a tall artistic figure, with clear cut features, with smiling expression. She has a cordial manner and is captivating and pleasing. We recall her as the fascinating Miss Jones, of Ashland.

The Laytham re-union at Maple Grove, Saturday, was the most pleasant event of the season, in honor of the distinguished guest, P. G. Lester. The dinner was a perfect triumph in the art culinary. The guests showed their appreciation of the varied menu by doing full justice to the tempting viands.

We dined on Sunday with our widower friend, Toney Laytham, at his picturesque and roomy mansion where the "old folks" once lived. The roast turkey and mince pie was very suggestive of the approaching Christmas, and the graceful dispensations of the young hostess, Miss Zella Scott Laytham, in parlor and dining hall, made one almost envy the refining influence of such surroundings. GERMANTOWN.

Miss Lizzie F. Pollock is visiting friends near Millersburg.

The wife of Howard Thompson died on Sunday night, of consumption, and was buried at this place Monday afternoon.

Rev. T. B. Cook and wife, Silas Robinson and wife, A. M. Pepper and daughter, Anna, and Miss Daisy Pollock formed a welcome and delightful company on last Friday to assist your correspondent in celebrating the anniversary of his birth. Although on the shady side of life, we hope they or some one else will have a similar pleasure for many years to come.

MAYSICK.

J. C. Jefferson has been with us for several days, mixing with his many friends.

Wm. Hamilton, of Millersburg, attended the Worthington sale last Thursday.

William H. Cole and the widow Walden, both of this place, went to Maysville last Monday, got a license and were married at the Central Hotel, Elder F. M. Tinder officiating.

J. A. Jackson returned from Lexington last Monday, where he went to have his eyes examined. He did not receive that encouragement from the examination he had hoped for. His eyes are about the same.

The sale of the property of Thomas D. Worthington, deceased, came off last Thursday and was largely attended. Everything sold for good prices. The farm of 120 acres was sold to James S. Pogue, he being the highest bidder, for $116.15 per acre. Jim has a dear little wife and needed a few more acres of land.

Property For Sale.

I will sell privately the home place of the late John McCarthy, on the south side of the Germantown pike, just outside the city limits. A good frame house and never-failing spring on the place. The lot fronts 100 feet and 8 inches, and extends back the same width 105 feet. Will be sold cheap. Apply to M. J. McCarthy, this office.

SATURDAY next the famous rural comedy "The County Fair" which bears the remarkable record of a three years' consecutive run in New York at the Union Square Theatre, and successful presentations en tour, will be presented at the Washington Opera House, at night. This play, like its companion picture, "The Old Homestead," depicts certain phases of New England life which are most amusing and entertaining. Its central figure is Abigail Prue, a certain prim and practical spinster, whose many absurdities keep the audience in a constant roar. Around her revolve other easily recognized characters. It is a refreshing, funny and pure entertainment furnished magnificently with car loads of scenery.

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. This is the medicine you want. Sold by all Druggists in Liquid, or in Powder to be taken dry or made into a tea.

A DISAPPOINTMENT TO US BUT A SAVING TO YOU!

Owing to the depressed condition of all mercantile and financial interests, we bought our Fall and Winter stock at greatly reduced prices. The many that have visited our house this season and made their purchases well know that they bought better goods for less money than they could elsewhere. Relying upon improved condition of affairs after the session of the late called Congress, we flattered ourselves that we would go through this season without recourse to a Cut-Price Sale, which actually means to lose on these forced sales what little has been made early in the season on regularly sold goods! But, alas! the results of the extra session are far from what we hoped for, and, like thousands of other merchants, we have a great big stock of goods and very little money. The result of this state of affairs is that we just MUST realize on our goods, and must do so in the next thirty days. We will ask you one question: HAVE YOU GOT ANY MONEY? If you have, you can, at the opening day of our Cut-Price Sale, (next Thursday, the 14th), and continue until all our heavy goods are sold, buy whatever you want at 20 per cent. less than the price of the goods. Mark this, if you please: We do not mean 20 per cent. less than their value, for at our regular prices you buy them from 15 to 20 per cent. less than you pay for same goods elsewhere, but we mean 20 per cent. less than our regular prices, which means fully

Per Cent. Less Than the Real Legitimate Value of the Goods!

This reduction is on every article of CLOTHING in our mammoth stock, from the three-year-old Child's Suit to the largest Overcoat in our house. Moreover, you know from previous cut sales that we reserve nothing. During this sale, at the 20 per cent. reduction, not a garment will be sent out on approval, NOR WILL WE CHARGE ANYTHING TO ANYBODY, but if goods, on examination, are not satisfactory, we will refund the money. Sale begins next Thursday morning, the 14th. A Key to our $25.00 in Gold Safe given with each Cash Sale.

Mr. Will Mullineaux and Miss Iva Bridges
Wedded at West Union.

The Nuptials Occurred November 3rd, and the Secret Has Been Well Kept

The many friends of Miss Iva Bridges will be surprised to learn that she has been a bride since November 3rd. On that date she became Mrs. Will Mullineaux.

The ceremony that united the happy couple was quietly solemnized at West Union, O. The couple drove over in the forenoon of the day named, secured the necessary license and going to the parsonage of the Christian Union Church, were married at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Shumaker. They then returned to this city. It was the intention of the couple to keep their wedding a secret until next week, but the BULLETIN came into possession of the facts this morning.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. S. P. Bridges, and is one of Maysville's lovely and estimable young ladies. The groom is a young gentleman of excellent character, and has had charge of the Big Four's telegraph office at Springfield, O., for some time. His parents reside at Gallipolis, O., where his father is owner of a large planing mill.

The groom will join his bride here in a few days. The happy couple will take up their residence in Springfield some time next week.

LADIES, when buying Christmas presents for your husbands or best fellows, don't fail to see Hechinger & Co.'s line of smoking jackets. They are beautiful and at the same time very reasonable in prices.

It is a fact that Ballenger has the largest, best and most artistic assortment of holiday goods ever seen in Maysville. Diamonds, watches, solid gold jewelry, silver novelties, imported bric-a-brac, clocks, bronzes and solid silverware. Don't fail to see his goods.

The Flemingsburg Christian Church will hold a special service Sunday, December 31, in memory of the late Rev. Joseph Frank. He was pastor of the church for several years. The friends of the temperance cause will also hold memorial services at that place next court day.

A SPECIAL from Washington City says: "The appointment of Mr. Crit Pearce, of Nashville, Tenn., brother of Charles D. Pearce, of the Courier-Journal, to a responsible position under the Treasury Department was decided on Monday noon. The appointment will go into effect on the 15th inst." Mr. Pearce is a son of Mr. Chas. B. Pearce, cashier of the State National Bank, and his Maysville friends will be glad to learn of his good fortune.

A BAZAR, under the management of the ladies of the Christian Church, will be held in the chapel of the church on Friday, December 15th. Fancy and useful articles suitable for holiday gifts will be on sale. The bazar will be opened at 10 o'clock in the morning and continue through the day. From 5:30 until 9 p. m. a supper will be served, which will include all the palatable dishes of the season, and the price of which will be 25 cents. The patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

MR. M. R. GILMORE, who has been ill for a week or two with rheumatism, is improving.

Don't miss seeing the new arrivals in Cloaks at Brownings. The prices will astonish you.

COLONEL EIFERT, prominent in Greenup County, died suddenly Monday morning of heart trouble.

The venerable Isaac Whipp, of Fern Leaf precinct, is quite sick with some disease of the kidneys.

The show-window at the Postoffice Drugstore is "a thing of beauty" with its display of holiday novelties.

MRS. ISAAC SCOTT, of near Fern Leaf, presented her husband a few days ago with a fine girl baby; weight nine pounds.

The proprietors of the Central Hotel will furnish their own electric light in a short time. The plant is now being put in.

The late Rev. Joseph Frank left an estate valued at $20,000, says the Fleming Gazette. He bequeathed the property to his wife.

OBSERVE J. T. Kackley & Co.'s prices on pictures for Christmas presents. Remember that art wins the heart. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

USEFUL presents are the longest remembered. Goods of this kind can be had at P. J. Murphy's the jeweler, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

At the mass meeting at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon about $20 was contributed in cash and pledges to the State Sunday School Union.

MERCHANTS should bear in mind—as a good bargain in bargain-hunting times—that advertisements in the BULLETIN are sure to reach a large class of readers.

LADIES, nothing more appropriate nor more appreciated for a Christmas present for your sweetheart or husband than one of Hechinger & Co.'s smoking jackets. Go and look at them.

THERE will be preaching at the First Baptist Church to-night at 7 o'clock by the pastor, Rev. Robert G. Patrick. You are cordially invited. The services will continue through the week.

THE books of the Limestone Building Association are open for the subscription of stock to the ninth series. Call on H. C. Sharp, Secretary, James Threlkeld, Treasurer, C. D. Newell, Solicitor, or any of the Directors.

Do not fail to avail yourself of the rare bargains in gold watches for gentlemen and ladies. My stock is too large, and I will sacrifice profits rather than carry these goods over Christmas. Now is your chance. P. J. Murphy, successor to Hopper & Murphy.

CAUGHT UP WITH.

Developments Showing How the State
Has Been Plucked by Blank
Book Makers.

A special from Frankfort says: "The State Treasury has been looted for years. The waste has been one at the spigot, rather than at the bung, but the long-continued leak has let through many dollars, and all the while those who knew of the wanton waste have been powerless to prevent it, until the recent Legislature at last passed a law regulating the supply of blank books to counties.

"Judge W. H. Gardner, the State Inspector, has reported his examination of two counties, and will soon report on others. These reports will exhibit a most remarkable state of affairs.

"They will show that not one or two, but dozens of County Clerks have been serving the publishers and manufacturers of blank books better than they have served their county and State.

"Perhaps the biggest waste in recent years has been what is called cross-index books. Not only the counties mentioned in the subjoined report, but a half dozen others which have no use for these books, and, if they had, could not use a set in 200 years, have bought two sets in the last eighteen months, and they cost a little more than $300 a set. One county not yet reported upon, and which has been in existence but nine years, has spent nearly $6,000 for record books.

"A number of counties, besides buying the costly cross-index sets, have bought in one year two or more volumes of the same books, one of which would last such a county for a hundred years. Two of these counties have piles of costly books not only without a scratch in them, but absolutely unpacked."

WEDDED AT MT. CARMEL.

Marriage of Mr. John C. Smith, of
This City, and Miss Mary B.
Kenner, of Fleming.

The event of the week at Mt. Carmel occurred Tuesday afternoon.

At the hour of 1 o'clock the ceremony that joined the destinies of Mr. John C. Smith, of this city, and Miss Mary Belle Kenner, of Fleming County, was solemnized. The M. E. Church, South, was the scene of the nuptials, and Rev. H. P. Walker, of Lexington, officiated. Mrs. Andrews, of Flemingsburg, presided at the organ. A large crowd of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony, and join in good wishes to the newly-wedded. Among the guests from a distance were Mrs. Dr. Ishmael and Mrs. W. T. Rigg, of Winchester, and Miss Mollie Given, of Cincinnati.

After spending a week or so in Cincinnati and at Winchester, the couple will be at home at the groom's residence on Sutton street.

The groom is one of Maysville's best and most thrifty citizens. For several years he has been book-keeper at the Oddfellows' Hall Clothing House. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Samuel Kenner, and is a young lady of lovely character. The Fleming Gazette says: "She is one of our most popular young ladies, and a representative of one of our best families."

It Was Debell's Brother.

Fleming Gazette: "Mr. E. C. Debell was mistaken for Newton Debell by one or two persons of this city last Friday, and specials were sent to the dailies stating that Newton Debell had been seen here. There is not a particle of doubt in any one's mind but that the body identified at Maysville was that of Newton Debell."

TALKING POLITICS.

The Parliamentary Battle Begun in the Senate.

THE FEDERAL ELECTIONS BILL.

Two Senators, Cullom of Illinois and Stewart of Nevada, Deliver Addresses—The House Considers the Utah Admission Bill, but Takes No Action on the Measure—Proceedings of Congress.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The first gun of the inevitable parliamentary battle in the senate upon the question of the repeal of the federal elections law was fired yesterday, and it comes from one of the opponents of repeal—Senator Cullom of Illinois.

Senator Stewart of Nevada in a short speech advocated the repeal of the elections laws and incidentally gave expression to some of his well known views on the financial question. The resolution calling upon the president for additional information in the Hawaiian matter was laid over in order that Mr. Frye of Maine might submit some remarks.

After the morning business Mr. Cullom—Rep., Ills.—took the floor to speak on the federal elections bill. He reviewed the legal questions involved in federal supervision of elections, taking the broad view of the constitutional power of the general government to regulate elections for federal officers.

Mr. Cullom went on with his speech referring to the pulling down of the American flag at Hawaii which could not have been accomplished by all the power of monarchical Europe, but which had been committed by the order of an American president upon the advice and recommendation of a "newly baptised Democratic secretary of state."

Mr. Stewart—Rep., Nev.—then addressed the senate in favor of the repeal of the federal election laws. He soon drifted into a discussion of the financial question, and attributed the evils complained of to the gold standard. During his speech, at the suggestion of Mr. Peffer, the roll was called and 48 senators responded.

The senate then at 3:10 went into executive session. At 4 o'clock the senate adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The house discussed the question of pinning another star on the American flag. The consideration of the bill for the admission of Utah into the sisterhood of states was begun. The principal point at issue was whether the enabling act should contain a provision imposing pains and penalty for polygamous marriages, the contention on the one hand being that the state should come in on an equal footing with other states unhandicapped by such provisions; on the other that as polygamy had been stamped out by federal statute and, as the admission of the territory would repeal that statute, congress should make it practically part of the enabling act.

Mr. Morse of Massachusetts, in opposing the bill, took occasion to make a vicious assault on Utah and Mormonism, recalling all the outrages of plural marriage, the crimes of Danites, the Meadow massacre, blood atonement and the revelations of the endowment house.

Mr. Rawlins, the Utah delegate, in the course of a brilliant speech championing the bill, replied to Mr. Morse and worsted the representative from the Bay state very badly. He opposed the amendment proposed relative to polygamy as too complex, but expressed a perfect willingness to accept a simple amendment suggested by Mr. Powers of Vermont, prohibiting polygamous marriages forever.

Mr. Harter of Ohio opposed the bill on the ground that it gave a sparsely settled western territory too much influence in the senate. The general impression seemed to be that his real object was to prevent the election of two more free currency Democrats to the senate.

HEAVY CUT IN WAGES.

Some of Carnegie's High Priced Workmen Will Be "Equalized."

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 13.—With the current year the scales of four of the mills of the Carnegie Steel company, limited, expire, and sweeping reductions to equalize wages under existing conditions and improved machinery will be made. This will affect the Homestead mills, employing 3,800 men, the upper and lower Union City mills, employing 1,600 men, and the Beaver Falls mills, employing about 700 men. At the Union and Beaver Falls mills the Carnegies are still paying the wages under the Amalgamated scale of 1891. It is figured that these equalizations will amount to about 40 per cent.

The number of men at Homestead that will be affected by the heavy reductions will be about 1,000, comprising the high priced men who make big wages at a low rate per ton on account of the highly improved machinery insuring a big output in tonnage. Wages for minor positions, which have also been benefited by constant mechanical improvements, will also be reduced.

"It has been the company's policy," said Agent Leman, who is an authority on the Carnegie company's matters, "to pay wages just a little higher than is paid for the same work at other mills. This gives them the best workmen in the country. Laborers at their mills receive $1.40 a day."

Stabbed in the Heart.

AKRON, O., Dec. 13.—Ed Denaple killed Walter Riehl yesterday. Both were employees of the Werner printing works. Just as they were preparing to leave yesterday evening, Riehl held a board in front of him and called playfully to Denaple "stab me." Denaple had a long knife in his hands and responded with a lunge. Missing the board he stabbed Riehl to the heart.

Startling Announcement.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 13.—The defense in the Anna Wagner trial has announced that they will put on the stand after the state has finished a witness who will swear that she, and not the defendant, was "the woman in a blue dress" who bought rat poison at the Borst drugstore. The woman is Mrs. Wilosky.

Hurricane in England.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A hurricane is reported in the south of England. The channel mailboat was unable to enter Folkestone harbor and was obliged to proceed to Dover.

A boat in Plymouth harbor capsized and four men-of-war's men were drowned.

The roof of the railroad station at Portsmouth collapsed today, wounding two persons, one of whom will die. The gale is very severely felt in London.

Tried to Hide the Crime.

ROCKFORD, N. Y., Dec. 13.—The hamlet of Farmingville, four miles distant from this place, is terribly wrought up over the murder of Mrs. Georgiana Jackson, 55 years old, who lived alone in an old-fashioned house in the middle of a large farm. The murderer, after killing the aged woman, set fire to the building, hoping in this way to hide the crime. There is no clew to the perpetrator of the crime.

Furniture Factory Burned.

FORT WAYNE, Dec. 13.—The large Auburn church furniture factory building at Auburn, Ind., was totally destroyed by fire, together with its entire contents. The factory was valued at $20,000. The house of Secretary McCuiston was also burned. The fire is supposed to have been of incendiary origin. George Fredericks, the night watchman at the furniture factory, was burned to death.

Crazed With Whisky.

TYLER, Tex., Dec. 13.—Yesterday, 10 miles from this city, one Dr. Kellar, a white man, of Rusk county, shot and mortally wounded a negro named Hartfield and badly injured Hartfield's son. The elder Hartfield, after being shot through, secured a shotgun and mortally wounded Kellar. Kellar had been on a drunk and was crazed with whisky.

Coal Mine on Fire.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 13.—The new shaft of the Kohlnoor colliery at Shenandoah, one of the Reading company's biggest operations, is on fire. The men at work in the mine escaped by another shaft. The colliery employs between 700 and 800 men and boys.

Death on the Track.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 13.—Louis Boland, a well known citizen, was instantly killed by a fast Wabash passenger train last night. His body was horribly mangled. He was walking on the track.

Another Hospital Needed.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 13.—The trustees of the state soldiers' home filed their annual report with Governor McKinley yesterday. They ask for an appropriation to build an additional hospital.

Gladstone's Valet Drowned.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—A body found in the Thames has been identified as that of Mr. Gladstone's valet.

SOLE AGENTS FOR

THE CELEBRATED JOHN VAN RANGES.

Told at the Liars' Club.

"No sooner was I seated in the chair than the barber commented on the weather and directed a current of discourse into my ears.

"'Je ne comprend pas,' said I, with an inward chuckle, thinking his volubility would be checked.

"In very good French he started in afresh. I looked at him as if bewildered and then interrupted him by asking:

"'Was sagen Sie?"

"He began to repeat in German all that he had been saying, when I shut him off with:

"'Oh, talk to me with your fingers. I'm deaf and dumb!'"—Truth.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
